

Invitation to the 2nd International Police Education Conference October 2020 - online

Run in conjunction with IBZ Gimborn, the London Policing College and the British Council, the conference and workshops will focus on the impact of the pandemic on policing, and offers an opportunity to share experiences. The conference is designed for police practitioners, researchers, and educators to exchange best practice and review learning.

The conference will focus on the outcome resulting from a series of workshops held during October 2020, which will engage police officers, staff, educators, and researchers from across the world and draw on their experiences and learning. These workshops will produce a series of papers considering key operational, organisational and educational impacts. Participants in the conference are strongly encouraged to take an active part in these workshops to ensure a wide range of perspectives in each session.

There are six online workshops which will be delivered from 09.00 – 10.30 am BST:

1. Policing in the Time of Pandemic: Police Operations and Crises

Delivered over three 1.5-hour workshops on 5th, 7th and 9th October by Roger Gomm QPM, Fellow of the Institute of Civil Protection and Emergency Management, and lecturer at the UK Emergency Planning College.
